

CIVICS IN THE CLASSROOM

Series I

Sponsored by: The US Department of Education

P

As our first article mentioned, one mission of the Public Employees Roundtable is to encourage young people to consider employment in the public/government sector. Hence this series is devoted to significant features of our governmental system which needs to be understood when thinking about working therein-but which many young persons may not have been exposed too in their schooling.

